

Direct to Indirect Speech

Rewrite each sentence in Indirect speech.

Example: Johnson said, "The cave looks dark and creepy."
Johnson said that the cave looked dark and creepy.

1) Charlie said to the baker, "Will you bake chiffon cakes tomorrow?"

2) He said, "I didn't b

3) Britney said to Hel

4) The artist says, "A p

5) Mr. Perry said to h

6) The minister said,

7) Scott said, "Let's set up our tents here."

8) Marcus said, "How splendid the rainbow is!"

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Direct to Indirect Speech

Rewrite each sentence in Indirect speech.

Example: Johnson said, "The cave looks dark and creepy."

Johnson said that the cave looked dark and creepy.

1) Charlie said to the baker, "Will you bake chiffon cakes tomorrow?"

Charlie asked the baker if he would bake chiffon cakes the next day.

2) He said, "I didn't buy any bread."

He said that he had not bought any bread.

3) Britney said to Helga, "I want to see your new dress."

Britney requested Helga to show her her new dress.

4) The artist says, "A picture is worth a thousand words."

The artist says that a picture is worth a thousand words.

5) Mr. Perry said to his son, "I want to play the game."

Mr. Perry wanted to play the game.

6) The minister said, "I will visit Geneva next week."

The minister said that he was visiting Geneva the following week.

7) Scott said, "Let's set up our tents here."

Scott suggested that we should set up our tents there.

8) Marcus said, "How splendid the rainbow is!"

Marcus exclaimed that the rainbow was splendid.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com