Direct to Indirect Speech

Change each sentence from direct to indirect speech.

Example: Velvet says, “I love pets.”

Velvet says that she loves pets.

1) Dad said, “We need to paint our house this summer.”

Dad says that they need to paint their house this summer.

2) The magician says, “We all have magic within us.”

The magician says that they all have magic within them.

3) Denzel said to Garry, “Do you like coffee?”

Denzel asked Garry if he likes coffee.

4) Grandpa says, “Time and tide wait for none.”

Grandpa says that time and tide wait for none.

5) The kid said to the dentist, "I brush my teeth twice a day."

The kid told the dentist that they brush their teeth twice a day.

6) The coach said to the players, "Do your best."

The coach told the players to do their best.

7) Peter said, “Wow, what a thrilling ride!”

Peter exclaimed that it was a thrilling ride.

8) Mark said, “We should eat dinner outside.”

Mark suggested that they eat dinner outside.
Change each sentence from direct to indirect speech.

Example: Velvet says, “I love pets.”

Velvet says that she loves pets.

1) Dad said, “We need to paint our house this summer.”

Dad said that they needed to paint their house that summer.

2) The magician says, “We all have magic within us.”

The magician says that all of us have magic within us.

3) Denzel said to Garry, “Do you like coffee?”

Denzel asked Garry if he liked coffee.

4) Grandpa says, “Time and tide wait for none.”

Grandpa says that time and tide wait for none.

5) The kid said to the dentist, "I brush my teeth twice a day."

The kid informed the dentist that he brushes his teeth twice a day.

6) The coach said to the players, "Do your best."

The coach encouraged the players to do their best.

7) Peter said, “Wow, what a thrilling ride!”

Peter exclaimed in delight that the ride was thrilling.

8) Mark said, “We should eat dinner outside.”

Mark suggested that we should eat dinner outside.