

Double Negatives

When we use negative words such as "no," "nobody," "never," "nothing," "no longer," "scarcely," "none," and "hardly" in a sentence, we don't commonly use a negative word with another negative word in the same sentence.

Read the sentences and color the boxes that do not have double negatives.

1) Nicole couldn't find her friends in the drawer. ☐

2) I don't have any more cookies. ☐

3) The king didn't have any more money. ☐

4) My cousins didn't go to the zoo. ☐

5) Sandra hasn't finished her homework. ☐

6) Brad couldn't see the park. ☐

7) There were no clouds in the sky. ☐

8) We don't need any more cookies. ☐
