

Double Negatives

Double negatives are when we use two negatives in a phrase or sentence. When we use negative words such as "no," "nobody," and "nothing" in a sentence, the sentence would be considered faulty.

Complete each sentence with an appropriate word to avoid the double negative.

1) We haven't watched _____ of the new episodes yet.

- a) anything b) nothing

2) They had _____ to tell us about the trip.

- a) anything b) nothing

3) Irene doesn't trust _____ with her secrets.

- a) nobody b) anybody

4) They couldn't _____ to tell us about the trip.

- a) nothing b) anything

5) Grandma didn't _____ to tell us about the trip.

- a) anything b) nothing

6) Tracey won't _____ without her phone.

- a) nothing b) anything

7) He _____ to safely conceal his disappointment.

- a) could b) couldn't

8) The hikers couldn't find _____ water along the trail.

- a) any b) no

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com