

Double Negatives

Double negatives are when we use two negatives in a phrase or sentence. When we use negative words such as "no," "nobody," and "nothing" in a sentence, we don't generally use a negative verb. Otherwise, the sentence would be considered faulty.

Example I don't need no help.

I don't need help.

I need help.

PREVIEW

Rewrite each sentence in two ways by correcting the double negative.

1) Meryl

2) We ha

3) The kids do

4) Harrison doe

5) Emma

6) Dwayne can't go nowhere without his phone.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com