Double Negatives

Double negatives are using two negatives in a phrase or sentence. When we use negative words such as no, nobody and nothing in a sentence, we don't generally use a negative verb. Otherwise, the sentence would be considered faulty.

Example: She didn't read nothing.

She didn't read anything.

She read nothing.

Rewrite each sentence so that it does not contain a double negative.

1) There isn't no one here.

2) We haven't seen no one.

---

---

3) There wasn't no one here.

---

4) I don't see nobody.

---

---

5) Jerry doesn't eat no fish.

---

---

6) Mr. Parker no longer doesn't use a pen.
