

Name : _____

Gerunds

The examples show how to use the same gerund as the subject, object, and object of the preposition. Follow the model and change the sentences below. Write the gerund's function in each sentence.

Example: Sharing

Sharing the room with two others was difficult for Tom. (subject)

Tom didn't like sharing the room with two others. (object)

Tom didn't like the idea of sharing the room. (object of the preposition)

1) Getting up

2) Reading

3) Singing

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Name : _____

Gerunds

The examples show how to use the same gerund as the subject, object, and object of the preposition. Follow the model and change the sentences below. Write the gerund's function in each sentence.

Example: Sharing

Sharing the room with two others was difficult for Tom. (subject)

Tom didn't like sharing the room with two others. (object)

Tom didn't like the idea of sharing the room (object of the preposition)

1) Getting up

Getting up when it rains (subject)

Mark detests getting up early (object)

Mark is angry about getting up late (object of the preposition)

2) Reading

Reading is the most important skill (subject)

We must encourage children to read (object)

Children should be encouraged to read (object of the preposition)

3) Singing

June has loved singing since she was a child. (object)

June's passion for singing is well known. (object of the preposition)

Singing has always fascinated June. (subject)

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com