

Homographs

Homographs are words that are identical in spelling but different in meaning and origin. They may differ in pronunciation too.

Example: Little Kim watched the ants march in a straight line. (move)
March is the third month of the year. (a month)

Fill in each blank with a homograph that best fits in.

- 1) He placed the co _____
- 2) Be careful not to _____
- 3) Can we _____
- 4) Terry managed to _____
- 5) I _____ my fri _____
- 6) We're planning a _____
- 7) The beach had n _____
- 8) I need a safety _____ to hold this fabric together.
- 9) I like to _____ rope in the playground during recess.
- 10) Max will _____ class because he has a doctor's appointment.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

the wrestling match.

