Janice was ready earlier than usual that fine morning, for she was accompanying Uncle Jeremy to the bank. How eager was she to see how the big piggy banks for the grown-ups would look like!

Walking past the big sign, she saw the building on the right, close to the bank of the river. Several busy people engrossed in records and computers, caught her curious sight.

Jeremy explained how a bank handles transactions, deposits, and so on. “What about ‘saving for’?”, asked Janice. “close your loan by repaying it, and learn to use a debit card,” Jeremy showed Janice how to use a debit card to leave.

Janice was visibly awed, and could hardly wait to own an account.
