

Spot the Homographs

Homographs are words that are identical in spelling, but different in meaning and origin. They slightly differ in pronunciation too.

Example: Leaves tend to fall in the fall.

Read the sentences and underline the homographs.

- 1) The minute sugar
had turned to ice.
  - 2) Henry mentioned
the address as the CEO.
  - 3) Despite heading
towards the man.
He introduced
himself as a humble
man.
  - 4) All sailing boats
had to give up
in the race.
  - 5) Despite his progress,
he still had a long way
to go.
  - 6) Jackson hit the ball
with his bat.
  - 7) The army officer
spent the night in his quarters.
  - 8) Alice took a right turn at the right time, or else she would've lost sight of the rabbit.
  - 9) The mouse chewed up the cable of the mouse.
  - 10) I'll ring Mom and tell her about the ring I bought for her.
- # PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com