

Name : _____

What happens next?

Read each passage and write what happens next.

- 1) Young Franklin had been enjoying every moment of his vacation in the countryside. It was an exhilarating experience to spend time with his grandparents at the farm house. He helped Grandpa and Grandma clean the barn, feed the cattle and went for strolls in the fields. One evening, when his grandparents were away, Franklin noticed smoke in the barn.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 2) Every child in that neighborhood had heard the stories that their parents told. The Andersons had a very busy life. The daily household chores and the care of the children were not easy. The caretakers were not always available. It was now time to repay the captivating stories that they had heard. They could barely manage their own lives. They thought that it was time to help them. But when they decided that it was