

Metaphors

A metaphor is a direct comparison of two different objects. Unlike similes, metaphors don't use "like" or "as" for the comparison, and equate the two objects without using "is" or "are".

Example: determination, steel wall

His determination was as strong as steel.

PREVIEW

Make your own metaphor with each pair of words.

1)

words, arrows

2)

mountains, guardians

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

3)

book, tree

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete
access.

5)

f

www.mathworksheets4kids.com