

Metaphors

A metaphor is a direct comparison of two different objects. Unlike similes, metaphors don't use "like" or "as" for the comparison, and equate the two objects without using "is" or "are".

Example: courage, lion's roar

Courage is like a lion's roar, roaring over the

PREVIEW

Make your own metaphor with each pair of words.

1)

life, journey

2)

argument, heated dance

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

3)

fear

Members, please
log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to
gain complete
access.

5)

rain

www.mathworksheets4kids.com