

Name : _____

Participles

Complete the sentences choosing between the present and past participles given.

1) Tania said she finds the rules of sign language very _____ .
(confusing/confused)

2) The children didn't look _____ as they watched the intense chess match on TV. (boring/bored)

3) Lily was not _____ hours in the kitchen.
(tiring/tired)

4) Her family is really _____ g her graduation ceremony. (thrilling/thrilled)

5) It is _____ ndrew's home.
(surprising/surprised)

6) There is a new circuit _____ in going there tonight? (interesting/interested)

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

7) The readers were _____ by the death of one of the most important characters in his novel. (stunning/stunned)

8) Great food and _____ customers were two major factors that contributed toward the café's success. (satisfying/satisfied)

Name : _____

Participles

Complete the sentences choosing between the present and past participles given.

1) Tania said she finds the rules of sign language very confusing .
(confusing/confused)

2) The children didn't look bored as they watched the intense chess match on TV. (boring/bored)

3) Lily was not _____ hours in the kitchen.
(tiring/tired)

4) Her family is really _____ g her graduation ceremony. (thrilling)

5) It is surprising _____ Andrew's home.
(surprising/surprised)

6) There is a new circuit _____ in going there tonight? (interesting)

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

7) The readers were stunned by the death of one of the most important characters in his novel. (stunning/stunned)

8) Great food and satisfied customers were two major factors that contributed toward the café's success. (satisfying/satisfied)