

Making Predictions

Read each short story. Determine whether the prediction is likely to occur. Circle Yes or No.

		Prediction
1)	Harper turned in her homework, but she forgot to write her name on it.	The teacher will know immediately whose	Yes / No
2)	Oliver put a frozen juice box in his lunch bag this morning. When he opened it at school, the juice box was still frozen.	Oliver will be able to	Yes / No
3)	Ana's mom asked her to go to the park if it started to rain. Ana looks outside and sees bright blue skies with a few clouds.	Ana will likely go to the park.	Yes / No
4)	During art class, the glue bottle fell off the table. Ten minutes later, the top of the glue bottle was still on the table.		Yes / No
5)	Lucas put his goldfish food on the edge of the table. His little brother knocked it off the table.	The goldfish food might	Yes / No
6)	Harper turned in her homework, but she forgot to write her name on it.	Noah will have soccer practice this afternoon.	Yes / No

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com