

Making Predictions

Read each short story. Determine whether the prediction is likely to occur. Circle Yes or No.

1)	Caleb filled his backpack so full that he could barely zip it. When he tried to lift it, it felt extremely heavy.	Prediction Caleb will carry his backpack easily.	Yes / No
2)	Ella planted a seed in a pot, but she forgot to water it for two weeks. The soil is dry.	Prediction The seed will grow.	Yes / No
3)	Paula saved up for a new art set. She now has more than the amount she needs.	Prediction Paula will be able to buy the art set.	Yes / No
4)	The class has been studying fractions and is moving fast.	Prediction The class will finish the unit early.	Yes / No
5)	Mason saw his little sister stack blocks almost to her height. The tower is very tall.	Prediction The block tower might fall.	Yes / No
6)	Zoe put on her snow boots and scarf, but when she opened the door, she saw sunshine and warm weather.	Prediction Zoe will need her snow boots today.	Yes / No

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com