Hannah's Dilemma

Hannah finished pulling the weeds in Mrs. Gunner's garden. Mrs. Gunner was her elderly neighbor, and she paid Hannah each Friday to help in her flower garden.

Mrs. Gunner thanked Hannah and gave her five dollars. Hannah hurried home. Now she had sixty-five dollars. She was saving for a new bike. She needed seventy-five dollars for the bike. At home, a new catalog had come in the mail. It advertised a brand new doll that cost sixty-five dollars. Hannah was torn between buying a new bike.

What do you think she should do?
