

Name : _____

Making Predictions

Sheet 1

Read each statement. Determine whether it is a prediction or an inference and check the correct option.

Prediction

Inference

1) The ground is wet; it must have rained recently. Prediction Inference

2) Dark clouds are forming; it will rain soon. Prediction Inference

3) Mia's eyes are puffy; she must have been crying. Prediction Inference

4) The wind is blowing; it will get worse. Prediction Inference

5) The teacher is talking; she might be angry. Prediction Inference

6) The cookie jar is empty; someone must have eaten the cookies. Prediction Inference

7) The players are running; the game will start soon. Prediction Inference

8) The dog is barking; he must be scared. Prediction Inference

9) The lights are off; someone must have gone home. Prediction Inference

10) The bus is late; it will arrive in 10 minutes. Prediction Inference

11) Jordan's hair is sticking out; he packed in a hurry. Prediction Inference

12) The sun is setting quickly, so it will be dark soon. Prediction Inference

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com