

Interrogative Pronouns

An interrogative pronoun refers to a pronoun that introduces a question.

Example: Who was the first president of the United States?

Underline the interrogative pronoun in each sentence.

1) Someone left their shoes on the porch. Whose are these?

2) What do you want for lunch?

3) Who told you that?

4) Which of the stars is the brightest?

5) Yesterday was a busy day, wasn't it?

6) What do you think of this?

7) What is your name?

8) To whom are you referring?

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

