

Identify and write the wise saying used in each story.

- 1) Gabe wanted a new toy. He pulled out his piggy bank and dumped the money into a heap on the rug. Grandpa came into the room. He asked what Gabe was up to. Gabe explained his plan. Grandpa looked around the room. He noted the many toys lying around. Gabe said all the toys were broken, so Grandpa helped him sort them. The four building blocks Gabe had forgotten about those! They also found the action figure he'd been missing for months. Maybe Gabe didn't need to buy new toys, after all. Grandpa smiled and helped Gabe put away the money. He said a new toy was a new reward. Gabe agreed.

- 2) At puppy school, Spot was racing, rolling, and jumping. He tripped over her paws and fell. She looked like she might cry. Spot went to Mitten and all the other pups. They were clean up the water. One of the other pups watched him and snickered. Mittens and Buddy stopped. Spot knew Mom's words were exactly right.
