

Comma

A comma is a punctuation mark used to to separate words or groups of words in a series.

Example: I ate chocolate ice cream pepperoni pizza hot fries and corn dogs at Sam's party.

I ate chocolate ice cream, pepperoni pizza, hot fries, and corn dogs at Sam's party.

Insert commas appropriately in each of the sentences.

- 1) Maya Simon Clara and Isabelle will join us tomorrow.

Maya, Simon, Clara and Isabelle

- 2) Lions are large mighty animals.

Lions are large, mighty animals.

- 3) This is a small beautiful garden.

This is a small, beautiful garden.

- 4) Roses are amazingly colorful.

Roses are amazingly colorful.

- 5) We ate breakfast got dressed and went to school.

We ate breakfast, got dressed, and went to school.

- 6) There is a school park clinic and a shopping mall near my house.

There is a school, park, clinic, and a shopping mall near my house.

- 7) We bought tickets entered the amusement park and enjoyed the rides.

We bought tickets, entered the amusement park, and enjoyed the rides.

- 8) Abigail washed the dishes mopped the floor mowed the lawn and cooked dinner.

Abigail washed the dishes, mopped the floor, mowed the lawn, and cooked dinner.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com symbolic.

It is very symbolic.