

When a sentence begins with yes, no, or sure, it is followed by a comma.

Example: yes brian enjoys working out every day.

_____, Brian enjoys working out every day.

Rewrite each sentence by adding a comma after "yes," "no," or "sure" and other punctuation marks as relevant. Capitalize whenever required.

1) no I've never been to paris before.

2) sure sarah

3) yes I'd like a cup of coffee and a cookie

4) yes david would you check

5) no mom didn't

6) sure I'll let you know and calls.

7) no that's not a good idea at all

8) yes I got it exclaimed mary.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com