

Pun is an amusing use of a word or phrase that has multiple meanings or sounds like another word.

Example: I used to be a baker, but I couldn't make enough dough.

The pun plays on "up to something" meaning mischief and stairs always leading up.

PREVIEW

Identify the pun in each sentence. Explain the pun in the space given.

1) I used to be a baker, but I couldn't make enough dough.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

2) Why don't

3) I'm reading a book on anti-gravity; it's impossible to put down.

4) I started a band called 'The Untouchables', but we still haven't got a single.

5) I couldn't figure out how to put my seatbelt on, then it clicked.

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com