

Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences

A simple sentence has only one main, or independent, clause and no subordinate, or dependent, clause. Formed with a subject and predicate, a simple sentence expresses a complete meaning.

Example : Kelly read a new book.

Complete each sentence with an appropriate subject or predicate.

PREVIEW

1) _____ goes to soccer practice every day.

2) The boy _____ .

3) _____

4) The rain _____ .

5) _____ an.

6) The cat _____ .

7) _____ at the mailman.

8) The woman _____ .

9) _____ the garden.

10) Our home _____ .

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com