

Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences

Combine each pair of simple sentences using an appropriate coordinating conjunction to make a compound sentence.

Example: Alex loves swimming. He dislikes running.

Alex loves swimming, but he dislikes running.

PREVIEW

1) Fiona wants to travel to Europe. She is saving money for it.

2) Max enjoys playing the guitar. He also likes to sing.

3) The weather is hot. The beach is crowded.

4) Lisa enjoys reading. She doesn't like watching TV.

5) The cat slept on the sofa. The dog slept on the floor.

6) Tina wants to travel to France. She is saving money for it.

7) James likes to play football. He also likes to play basketball.

8) Emily wants to travel. She hasn't decided on a destination yet.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com