

Name : _____

Compound Sentences

Compound sentences joins two or more independent clauses with a comma, semicolon or conjunction.

Example: Olivia likes to read. She goes to the library every week.

Olivia likes to read, so she goes to the library every week.

Combine the sentences using appropriate coordinating conjunctions.

1) Leon likes broccoli. Leon also likes carrots.

2) Dad boiled the potatoes. I mashed them.

3) It is raining. Let's walks fast.

4) Alan chased his cat. The cat escaped.

5) Sue was helping her mother. She didn't go out to play.

6) Ian wanted to play in the sandbox. Tim wanted to play on the slide.

7) Jake had not played tennis before. Jake had not watched tennis on TV.

8) We are going to the farmers' market. Today is Sunday.
