

Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences

A compound-complex sentence has two or more independent clauses and at least one dependent clause.

Identify whether each of the following sentences are simple, complex, compound, and compound-complex.

- 1) While Kevin was working in his garden, his phone rang but he ignored it because he was focused on the task at hand. _____
- 2) After she worked hard for years, Julie finally achieved her dream of becoming a published author. _____
- 3) She enjoys reading books and watching movies. _____
- 4) Since it was raining heavily, they decided to stay indoors and watch a movie. _____
- 5) We had a good time at the park. _____
- 6) The dog barked loudly when he saw the boy. _____
- 7) Simon decided to go to the carnival. _____
- 8) As the temperature dropped, Cassandra wrapped herself in a warm blanket and sipped on hot cocoa. _____
- 9) Mark enjoys hiking, fishing, and camping in the wilderness. _____

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com