

Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences

A compound-complex sentence has two or more independent clauses and at least one dependent clause.

Identify whether each of the following sentences are simple, complex, compound, and compound-complex.

- 1) Even though Jim had never tried cooking before, he decided to prepare a gourmet meal for his guests. _____
- 2) The concert tickets were expensive, yet they were worth every penny for the amazing experience. _____
- 3) Although she had to book a trip to Europe, she decided to go. _____
- 4) Little Bear cried because he was sad. _____
- 5) Because he was late, he had to run to arrive. _____
- 6) After Serena finished her workout, she went to the gym for her daily workout. _____
- 7) Mr. Collins went to the store, but he forgot to buy the milk. _____
- 8) Judy is a very smart girl. _____
- 9) They had already eaten dinner, so they weren't hungry. _____

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com