Identify whether each sentence is simple, compound or complex and check the boxes accordingly.

Example: The mirror broke, when the ball hit it.

1) Lily can touch the ceiling, for she is very tall.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

2) Mom usually takes a nap after lunch.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

3) The athlete ran around the track, and he jumped over the hurdles.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

4) Jerry checked his Christmas stockings, as soon as he woke up.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

5) Although he was tired, Kevin couldn't sleep.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

6) A beautiful rainbow appeared, when the rain stopped.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

7) Dad was very angry, yet he didn't say anything.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

8) Harry and Tom debate on a contemporary topic every day.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex
Identify whether each sentence is simple, compound or complex and check the boxes accordingly.

Example: The mirror broke, when the ball hit it.

1) Lily can touch the ceiling, for she is very tall.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

2) Mom usually takes a nap after lunch.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

3) The athlete ran around the track, and he jumped over the hurdles.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

4) Jerry checked his Christmas stockings, as soon as he woke up.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

5) Although he was tired, Kevin couldn't sleep.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

6) A beautiful rainbow appeared, when the rain stopped.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

7) Dad was very angry, yet he didn't say anything.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex

8) Harry and Tom debate on a contemporary topic every day.
   - Simple
   - Compound
   - Complex