

Shades of Meaning

Example: Ricky's silly movements were funny.

Ricky's silly movements were hilarious.

Although both "funny" and "hilarious" have similar meanings, the word "hilarious" gives a stronger meaning that Ricky's movements were extremely funny.

Rewrite each of the sentences by replacing the underlined word with a stronger word meaning the same.

PREVIEW

1) The coffee smelled good.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

2) Kids were playing and laughing.

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

3) Matilda looks _____ in the new gown.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

4) Kellan tossed the coin.

Kellan _____ the coin.