

Shades of Meaning

Example:

Mrs. Susan is a very helpful teacher.

Mrs. Susan is a very supportive teacher.

Although both “helpful” and “supportive” have similar meanings, the amount and range of help we receive from a “supportive” teacher is much bigger.

Rewrite each of the sentences, by replacing the underlined word with a stronger word meaning the same.

Tina saw the painting.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

After hours of work, Jacob was _____.

Charlotte dislikes traveling by the train.

Charlotte _____ traveling by the train.