

Name : _____

Direct Objects & Object Complements

An object complement is a word or phrase that describes or renames the object. It gives further meaning to the direct object.

Example: The surprise gift made him awestruck.

Underline the direct object, and circle the object complement in each of the sentences.

1) Jacob found his wallet empty.

2) The assembly chose...

3) Ray found the novel...

4) Peter likes the turkey...

5) The very thought of...

6) The police caught...

7) He calls his mom a...

8) We named the dog Brownie.

9) They will soon nominate Dad vice president.

10) He buried the seed deep.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Direct Objects & Object Complements

An object complement is a word or phrase that describes or renames the object. It gives further meaning to the direct object.

Example: The surprise gift made him awestruck.

Underline the direct object, and circle the object complement in each of the sentences.

1) Jacob found his wallet empty.

2) The assembly chose _____

3) Ray found the novel _____

4) Peter likes the turkey _____

5) The very thought of _____

6) The police caught _____

7) He calls his mom a _____

8) We named the dog Brownie.

9) They will soon nominate Dad vice president.

10) He buried the seed deep.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com