

Subject and Predicate

A subject is the person, thing, or place that a sentence speaks about. It is generally a noun or a pronoun.

A predicate is the part of a sentence that tells the reader what the subject is or does.

Example: They won the match.

PREVIEW

Identify the subject and predicate in each sentence. Colour the subject pink and the predicate blue.

1) I lost the dashboard.

2) She

3) The teapot is hot and stable.

4) Squirrels are everywhere.

5) Mum was

6) Cornot fries were kept as a snack for today.

7) We went on a long drive.

8) Jason enjoyed the crisp autumn air.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com