

Subject and Predicate

A subject is the person, thing, or place that a sentence speaks about. It is generally a noun or a pronoun.

A predicate is the part of a sentence that tells the reader what the subject is or does.

Example: My father walks to school.

PREVIEW

Identify the subject and predicate in each sentence. Color the subject pink and the predicate blue.

1) The paper boat doesn't sink in the water.

2)

S

3)

T

4)

H

5)

A

6)

S

7)

J

8)

The lion cubs are following their father.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com