

Subject and Predicate

Combine the verbs from the two given sentences to make a new sentence with a compound predicate.

Example: Lucy adopted a cat and took care of it.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 1) Maria dances ballet. And so, she practices yoga for strength and flexibility.
- 2) The rain poured heavily. It drenched everything in sight.
- 3) Peter reads books. He also plays video games.
- 4) The chef cooked the meal. He also served the guests.
- 5) Amanda writes stories. She also draws pictures.
- 6) They laughed and played. They also enjoyed the fire.
- 7) Birds chirped. They also sang songs.
- 8) Tom hikes mountain trails on weekends. He also camps under the stars.
- 9) The baker kneads dough in the bakery's kitchen. Additionally, he bakes bread.
- 10) Mary designs jewelry. She also crafts unique pieces for her online store.