

Subject and Predicate

Combine the verbs from the two given sentences to make a new sentence with a compound predicate.

Example: Tina plays hockey and goes swimming.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

1) Allen and Kailey met yesterday. They went for dinner.

2) The road turned. The road bent.

3) Tom stood.

4) Mom is.

5) The phone rang. The conversation.

6) Lynn danced. The room.

7) Fiona went to the house.

8) She went to the bakery. She bought some donuts.

9) Houston hums with activity. Houston buzzes with excitement.

10) He got out of bed. He ate a sandwich.