

Subject and Predicate

A simple predicate is the verb without any other words that describe or modify it.

Example : They went hiking after six months.

Underline the simple predicate in each sentence.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 1) Caspian digs the ground for planting.
- 2) My friend is a very good dancer.
- 3) Mick is a very good singer.
- 4) Rowan wore mittens for warmth.
- 5) Our cancer research is very successful.
- 6) The mother of the boy is a very good teacher.
- 7) Lions roar loudly in their territory.
- 8) She is a very good dancer.
- 9) They are eating apple pie at the restaurant.
- 10) His father built a good relationship with him.