

Tag Questions

Tag questions, also called question tags, are phrases added at the end of a sentence, and they change normal sentences into interrogative sentences. If the sentence is positive, the tag is negative; if the sentence is negative, the tag is positive.

Example:

That was a cracking performance, wasn't it?

PREVIEW

Write an appropriate negative tag for each of the positive statements

1) The school has already closed for spring break, _____

2) You can't find a parking space here, _____

3) The Emperor is a very kind man, _____

4) I made a huge mistake, _____

5) Kayla's dad is a very busy man, _____

6) Grandpa tells me that you are a very good boy, _____

7) Giselle will come with us on the trip, _____

8) The Captain is a very brave man, _____

9) I have suffered enough in life, _____

10) You're sure you can win the case, _____

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

