

Tag Questions

Tag questions, also called question tags, are phrases added at the end of a sentence, and they change normal sentences into interrogative sentences. If the sentence is positive, the tag is negative; if the sentence is negative, the tag is positive.

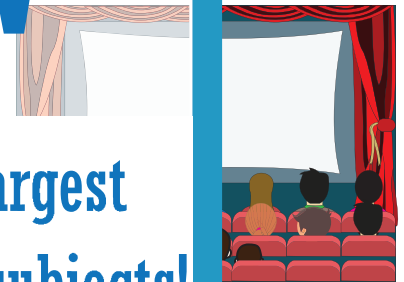

Example:

Helene hasn't completed the book yet, _____ has she?

PREVIEW

Write an appropriate positive tag for each of the negative statements

1) It's not the end of the world, _____

2) They couldn't find the map, _____

3) The speaker was not interested, _____

4) Jeremy couldn't find the right answer, _____

5) I don't look like a professional, _____

6) You aren't the best, _____

7) The game won't be fun before I get there, _____

8) Ivan wasn't happy, _____

9) Let's all go on a picnic, _____

10) The carnival hasn't been a success this year, _____

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com