

Transition words or phrases are used to help the reader understand how two ideas connect to one another.

Example: Mom worked overtime on Tuesday; meanwhile, the kids watched TV at home.

PREVIEW

Identify the transition words or phrases in the sentences below.

1) Mona made it seem like the task was way too easy for her.

2) Please

3) Owing to her illness, Sarah had to quit her job.

4) Daisy is an artist and she

5) The players missed the ball, and the referee was confident.

6) The manager rejected my plan; clearly, I have to work harder.

7) Ross played football in college, whereas Joey played hockey.

8) The win was unexpected given that the team hadn't trained well.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com