

Helping Verbs

A modal verb is a helping verb that gives additional information about the function of the main verb. Examples of modals include can, could, may, might, will, would, shall, should, must, and ought to.

Complete each sentence using a correct helping verb from the word box.

will

might can must shall would

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

1) We _____ bru

2) We _____ pac

3) Clara and Kate _____

4) John _____ e

5) Olivia _____ s

6) _____ Harry show up for the match?

7) We _____ order cheese pizzas for dinner.

8) Children _____ learn to take care of their surroundings.

Helping Verbs

A modal verb is a helping verb that gives additional information about the function of the main verb. Examples of modals include can, could, may, might, will, would, shall, should, must, and ought to.

Complete each sentence using a correct helping verb from the word box.

will

might

can must shall would

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

1) We must brush our teeth.

2) We can pack our bags.

3) Clara and Kate will be late.

4) John would like to go.

5) Olivia might see him.

6) Will Harry show up for the match?

7) We shall order cheese pizzas for dinner.

8) Children should learn to take care of their surroundings.

