

Name : _____

Herbivores, Carnivores, or Omnivores?

Fill in the blanks.

1) Animals eat different types of _____ .

2) _____ have eyes on either side of their head.

3) The sharp, curved _____ .

4) _____

5) _____ es from predators.

6) _____ back teeth.

7) Herbivores such _____ .

8) Carnivores usua _____ eet and claws.

9) _____ have sharp, pointed, and curved teeth in the front to tear flesh.

10) Giraffes have _____ necks to reach the leaves high up on trees.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Herbivores, Carnivores, or Omnivores?

Fill in the blanks.

1) Animals eat different types of food.

2) Herbivores have eyes on either side of their head.

3) The sharp, curved claws of carnivores are called talons.

4) Omnivores

5) Horns are used by animals to defend themselves from predators.

6) Omnivores have sharp front teeth and flat back teeth.

7) Herbivores such as cows have hooves.

8) Carnivores usually have sharp front teeth and claws.

9) Omnivores have sharp, pointed, and curved teeth in the front to tear flesh.

10) Giraffes have long necks to reach the leaves high up on trees.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com