

Name : _____

Properties of Magnets

Magnets attract objects made of iron, nickel, and cobalt.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

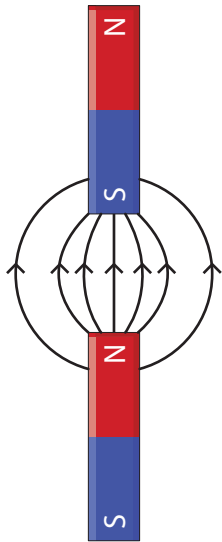

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Poles always exist in pairs. They cannot be separated.

Opposite poles of two magnets attract each other.

A freely suspended magnet aligns itself in the north-south direction.

Like poles of two magnets repel each other.