

Name : _____

Events in Chronological Order

Cut and glue each event chronologically.

Name : _____

Events in Chronological Order

Sojourner Truth gave the famous extemporaneous speech "Ain't I a woman?", supporting equal rights for blacks and women.

The Congress passed the 13th Amendment, which abolished slavery in the United States.

On January 1, President Abraham Lincoln issued the final Emancipation Proclamation.

Barack Obama, became the first African American to be elected as the 44th President of the United States.

Virginia's first enslaved Africans arrived at Point Comfort, on the James river.

Harriet Tubman, the most famous "conductor" of the Underground Railway led numerous slaves to freedom.

President Lyndon Johnson signed into Law, the Civil Rights Act that outlawed discrimination in employment and education on any basis.

Name : _____

Events in Chronological Order

Cut and glue each event chronologically.

Virginia's first enslaved Africans arrived at Point Comfort, on the James river.

Harriet Tubman, the most famous "conductor" of the Underground Railway led numerous slaves to freedom.

Sojourner Truth gave the famous extemporaneous speech "Ain't I a woman?", supporting equal rights for blacks and women.

On January 1, President Abraham Lincoln issued the final Emancipation Proclamation.

The Congress passed the 13th Amendment, which abolished slavery in the United States.

President Lyndon Johnson signed into Law, the Civil Rights Act that outlawed discrimination in employment and education on any basis.

Barack Obama, became the first African American to be elected as the 44th President of the United States.