

Name : _____

Fill in the blanks

- 1) _____ is the wise use, care and protection of resources, so that they can persist for future generations.
- 2) Oil and coal are _____ fuels.
- 3) _____ arises when the need for a resource is more than its availability.
- 4) Electricity produced from flowing water is called _____ .
- 5) _____ is a fossil fuel created by the decomposition of organic material.
- 6) Solar energy is obtained from the _____ .
- 7) A _____ is that which humans have discovered and developed over a long time.
- 8) _____ resources are non-living natural resources.
- 9) _____ is a natural resource made from the preserved remains of living thing that have died millions of years ago.
- 10) _____ , _____ , _____ and _____ are the 4 R's of conservation.

Name : _____

Answer key

Fill in the blanks

- 1) Conservation is the wise use, care and protection of resources, so that they can persist for future generations.
- 2) Oil and coal are fossil fuels.
- 3) Scarcity arises when the need for a resource is more than its availability.
- 4) Electricity produced from flowing water is called hydroelectricity.
- 5) Natural gas is a fossil fuel created by the decomposition of organic material.
- 6) Solar energy is obtained from the sun.
- 7) A developed resource is that which humans have discovered and developed over a long time.
- 8) Abiotic resources are non-living natural resources.
- 9) Fossil fuel is a natural resource made from the preserved remains of living thing that have died millions of years ago.
- 10) Reduce, reuse, recycle and recover are the 4 R's of conservation.