

Name : _____

Natural Resources - Quiz

Answer the following.

1) How are natural resources classified?

2) What is resource depletion?

3) What is a flow resource?

4) What is sustainable?

5) Distinguish between renewable and non-renewable resources with examples.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Natural Resources - Quiz

Answer the following.

1) How are natural resources classified?

Natural resources are classified into six types which are biotic, abiotic, actual, potential, renewable and non-renewable.

2) What is resource depletion?

When resources are used faster than they can be replenished, then it is termed as resource

3) What is a flow resource?

Resources that are used when and where

Examples: water, wind

4) What is sustainable development?

Utilizing the resource also taking care of development.

5) Distinguish between renewable, and must be resources.

requirement, and called sustainable resources with examples.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Exhaustible resources	Inexhaustible resources
Exhaustible resources are those that are limited and will be exhausted with continuous usage.	Inexhaustible resources are those that cannot be depleted by human consumption.
Example: coal	Example: wind power