

Name : _____

The Perfect Gift

by Amreen Asad

Identify the homographs in the story, and write what they mean in each context.

Mr. Bass wanted to surprise his wife with a ring. He stepped out on to the bank of the river to fill his little piggy bank with some quarters.

On and on and on he went, strumming the strings of his bass until all the animals and birds gathered around him.

The bass was taking a bow at the audience to welcome them, when a naughty raven perched on a branch of the tree. A dove sitting on a tree gave bass a quarter.

Soon it was quarters and vests, were back from school pennies and dove into the

A shepherd who was with a cow with a broken horn

The sun was about to set and the doe were all set to go. The Bass looked at his pocket counting his coins. The very bass' heartbeat was all over him broke when he realized

"Oh! What do I do now?" he thought to himself. Well then he remembered his friend Mr. Croc, who had once wanted to buy his bass. He picked his phone and gave Croc a ring and struck a deal. He exchanged his bass which he loved so dearly, for some money.

When Bass gave his wife the ring she also gifted him something in return. Bass opened the gift, and to his sweet surprise, found the bass he had sold.

Mrs. Bass used up all her savings to buy back the bass from Croc, for she knew how much Mr. Bass loved his bass.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

tree. A dove sitting on green coats and white feathers, dropped in a few minutes pool.

his sheep and a

and mare, the deer and the dog good bye!

for the day. He began counting of coins and the bass had a beat. His heart

Name : _____

The Perfect Gift

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com