

Identifying Dependent Clauses

A dependent / subordinate clause is a group of words which includes a subject and a verb, but doesn't contain a complete thought. Dependent clauses cannot stand alone as sentences.

Example: As far as Sam is concerned, working while studying is a good practice.

Underline the dependent clause in each sentence.

1) Whether you agree or not, playing video games regularly causes serious problems.

2) I should cover ten pages of the book by Monday.

3) Until Adam turned ten,

4) The team visited the museum.

5) Whenever he receives a letter,

6) Mason is fond of skating.

7) When the rain started,

8) Though they allow pets in, the park officials restrict where these can go.

9) A rainbow appears in the sky, when light enters the water droplets.

10) As soon as she received Samwell's letter, Grandma became overwhelmed with joy.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete
access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Identifying Dependent Clauses

A dependent / subordinate clause is a group of words which includes a subject and a verb, but doesn't contain a complete thought. Dependent clauses cannot stand alone as sentences.

Example: As far as Sam is concerned, working while studying is a good practice.

Underline the dependent clause in each sentence.

1) Whether you agree or not, playing video games regularly causes serious problems.

2) I should cover ten pages before I finish the book by Monday.

3) Until Adam turned

4) The team visited the

5) Whenever he recei

6) Mason is fond of sk

7) When the rain star

8) Though they allow pets in, the park officials restrict where these can go.

9) A rainbow appears in the sky, when light enters the water droplets.

10) As soon as she received Samwell's letter, Grandma became overwhelmed with joy.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please
log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete
access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com