Say – We use “say” to report a statement or message, without mentioning to whom it is said.
Example: John said that he was going to school.

Tell – We use “tell” to report statements, imperatives or requests. With “tell” the information is always communicated to someone.
Example: Mrs. Helen told us to submit the assignments in time.

Ask – We use “ask” to report questions or requests.
Example: Evelyn asked me when I had bought the new car.

Complete each sentence with the most appropriate of the three words: ask, say, or tell.

1) He _____________.
2) Grace _____________.
3) Lazarus _____________.
4) Benedict _____________.
5) Amelia _____________.
6) Nina _____________.
7) Kevin _____________.
8) Uncle Jeremy _____________.
9) Grandma _____________.
10) They _____________.
Say – We use “say” to report a statement or message, without mentioning to whom it is said.
Example: John said that he was going to school.

Tell – We use “tell” to report statements, imperatives or requests. With “tell” the information is always communicated to someone.
Example: Mrs. Helen told us to submit the assignments in time.

Ask – We use “ask” to report questions or requests.
Example: Evelyn asked me when I had bought the new car.

Complete each sentence with the most appropriate of the three words: ask, say, or tell.

1) He _________ said _________
2) Grace _________ asked _________
3) Lazarus _________ told _________
4) Benedict _________ said _________
5) Amelia _________ told _________
6) Nina _________ asked _________
7) Kevin _________ said _________ that he would be a little late for the party.
8) Uncle Jeremy _________ told _________ me that he was waiting for a cab.
9) Grandma _________ told _________ me not to play in the rain.
10) They _________ asked _________ me to show my ID card.