Britta looked around Aunt Val's attic. Boxes were piled around the space in heaps. Dust coated the windowsills. Old books, magazines, and toys littered the floor.

Aunt Val had a help clean up the attic. When the work was done, they were going to have a picnic.

Britta took a deep breath. First, she would sweep the floor. Then, she would vacuum the carpet.

Aunt Val started sorting through the boxes and what to throw away.

Britta arranged the boxes against the far wall.

"Look at this," Aunt Val said, holding up an old photograph. Britta hurried to her. "This was me and your mom when we were little." Aunt Val and Mom smiled for the picture while sitting on a giant swing.

Britta smiled, too. She liked old pictures.

When all the boxes were stacked, Britta sat down on an old rug. She went through a stack of old books.
